NEWSOM BARHAM

The main source of information on Newsom Barham comes from his obituary which appeared in the November 15,1839 issue of the Western Weekly Review. It read :

> Died - on Thurs. 24th ult. in this county, Mr. Newsom Barham, aged 78 years. The deceased was one of the gallant band of revolutionary patriots--who served our country well and nobly in the great struggle for liberty,--and died a member of the Christian church; an upright and pious citizen--mourned by many relatives and friends

It further stated that he died October 24, 1839.

Newsom Barham is listed in the 1830 Census of Davidson County, Tennessee.

Western Weekly Review, November 15, 1839
1830 Census of Middle Tennessee, by Byron Sistler, Evanston, Illinois, 1971
(Hereinafter referred to as 1830 Census of Middle Tennessee)

FREDERICK BASS

Frederick Bass's name appears on the list of Revolutionary soldiers on the Williamson County Courthouse. He was also listed as a soldier in Miss Susie Gentry's Scrapbook. A pension record could not, however, be obtained for him. He is said to be buried on the "old Atha Thomas Place" near Franklin. He was not listed in the 1820 nor 1830 Census of Williamson County, and no estate record could be found for him.

DAVID BAZWELL (BAZZELL)

David Bazwell made application for a Revolutionary War pension in April, 1833; he at that time being a resident of Williamson County, Tennessee. He had moved to Williamson County in 1822. In his application he stated that he was born in 1759 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He was living there during his first two tours of duty.

Bazwell's first tour of duty was as a substitute for William Minor. The tour was in answer to a call for men to go to Norfolk. They marched toward Norfolk; and when they arrived at Dinwiddie, some 100 miles from home, they learned the British had left Norfolk. They returned home.

The second tour of dury was as a substitute for George Stanback. He was stationed at Taylor's Ferry on the Roanoke River where he spent 30 days guarding a magazine.

After his second tour of duty the family moved to Person County, North Carolina. where he once again entered Service in a company commanded by Capt. Shadrack Hargis and Lt. Wetherford. They marched to Hillsborough and guarded the General Assembly for three months.

He was again called by lot and marched to Hillsborough where they guarded the General Assembly for another three months.

While David Bazwell was serving one of the tours of duty at Hillsborough, his brother, Robert, who as also in the Service, was mortally wounded at the Battle of Eutaw Springs.

The affadavit of David Bazwell was corroborated by his brother, John, then age 62 and also a resident of Williamson County, Tennessee.

David Bazwell's wife, Susan, made application for a widow's pension May 6, 1840. She stated that her husband had died December 29, 1836. She also stated that they were married June 29, 1793. She was a resident of Maury County, Tennessee, in 1840.

Mrs. Bazwell's testimony was proved by Samuel Dunnaway, of Davidson County, Tennessee. He stated that he was at the wedding of David Bazwell and Susan Price in Caswell County, North Carolina. He said they were married by William Moore, a Methodist minister. Dunnaway married Bazwell's sister.

David Bazwell's application for pension was approved, but his wife's was rejected for lack of proof.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY

By the favor of Mr. John T. Harris the author has been enabled to go over an old day book used from 1774 to 1777, etc., by Felix Gilbert, who lived and kept a store at or near the place since known as Peale's Cross Roads, five miles or so southeast of Harrisonburg. A number of items, copied from this old book, are given below. They have personal, social, and economic interest, as well as some political significance.

1775

Recd. for the Bostonians

Of	Patrick Frazier - - -	1 bus. wheat
	Jos. Dicktom - - -	2 do.
	George Boswell - - -	5½ do.	(5 bus. Retd.)
	James Walker - - -	1 do.	Return'd
	George Clark - - -	1 do.
	James Beard - - -	1 do.
	Robt. Scott & son - - -	2 do.

It is evident from the above that contributions were being made in this part of Virginia, as well as elsewhere, for the relief of the patriots of Boston, whose harbor had been closed by Act of Parliament in 1774, as a penalty for the "Boston Tea Party."

List of Tithables for 1775.

Felix Gilbert was probably authorized by the Augusta County court to take the list of tithables in his distirct. At any rate, the following list, dated 1775, is found written in his book. Most of the names herein given are still familiar in Rockingham:

John Coutes	1	Heny. Munger	1
Robt. Heth	2	Jno. Tack	1
Jno. Deneston	2	Henry Tack	1

23. Gen. Isaac Zane had iron works on Cedar Creek, the present boundary between the counties of Shenandoah and Frederick. He was perhaps a brother of Elizabeth Zane.

24. John Madison was the first clerk of Augusta County, and was the father of Bishop Madison. He lived at Port Republic.

CHAPTER V.

THE NEW COUNTY AND THE NEW NATION.

1777—1820.

In October, 1777, the Act providing for the creation of the County of Rockingham from Augusta was passed by the Virginia legislature; and early the next year, to wit, in April 1778, the first court for the new county was held. The board of justices was in session two days, and transacted a great deal of important business, not only in process of civil organization, but also in reference to various personal interests of individual citizens.

The following paragraph, copied from the original minute-book of the court, will get the situation and the several actors on the scene clearly before us:

Be it remembered that on the xxvii Day of April MDCCLXXviii a Commission of the peace and a Commission of Oyer & Terminer under the Hand of his Excellency Patrick Henry Esq. Governor in Chief, dated the xxiv Day of March MDCCLXXviii directed to Silas Hart, Daniel Smith, Abraham Smith, John Gratten, Josiah Davison, John Skidmore, George Bowell, Thomas Hewitt, John Thomas, William Nalle, Robert Davis, James Dyer, Henry Ewing, William McDowell, Anthony Ryder, John Fitzwater & Isaac Hinckel Gent. Justices for the County of Rockingham being read, Daniel Smith & Abraham Smith having administer'd the Oath of a Justice of Peace as prescribed by Act of Assembly also the Oath of a Justice of Oyer & Terminer to Silas Hart Gent. and then the said Silas Hart administered each of the said Oaths to Daniel Smith, Abram Smith, John Gratten, Josiah Davidson, George Bowell, Thomas Hewitt, John Thomas, James Dyer, Henry Ewing, William McDowell, Anthony Ryder, John Fitzwater & Isaac Hinckle, aforesaid, who were sworn in the Commission of the peace & Justices of Oyer accordingly.

Following out a commission issued March 24, 1778, by Governor Patrick Henry, Silas Hart was sworn in as sheriff, with Gabriel Jones and Robert Cravens as sureties. Gaven Hamilton qualified as deputy sheriff. Thomas Lewis produced a commission as county surveyor, from the president and masters of "the Colledge of Wm & Mary," and was sworn into the office, having Daniel Smith and Abraham Smith as sureties. Peter Hog was unanimously chosen and appointed clerk of the peace.

On this first day of the court, April 27, 1778, the following justices were present:

Daniel Smith	James Dyer
Abraham Smith	Henry Ewing
John Gratten	William McDowell
Josiah Davidson	Anthony Ryder
George Boswell	John Fitzwater
Thomas Hewitt	Isaac Hinckle
John Thomas

Various matters in the settlement of estates, etc., were transacted. The minutes are signed by Abraham Smith, but apparently written by someone else.

The court resumed its session the next day, April 28, 1778. At the opening six of the justices were present, namely: Daniel Smith, Abraham Smith, John Thomas, John Gratten, Isaac Hinckle, and John Fitzwater; an hour or two later Thomas Hewitt and James Dyer came in, and later still Josiah Davidson. A great deal of important business was transacted this day, in addition to the formal provisions for the settling of several estates.

The sheriff was ordered to summon 24 freeholders as a grand jury for the county;

William Bush, Jeremiah Beasly, Henry Brewster, George Huston, William Magill son of John, Elliot Rutherford, John Fulton, Jr., John Bryan, Jr., Reuben More, Mathias Leas Jr., Joseph Custard, William Dever, Beerton Blizard, Samuel Skidmore, and Jacob Ellsworth were appointed constables in their respective districts;

Abraham Smith was recommended to the governor and council as a fit man for the office of county lieutenant; Daniel Smith was in like manner recommended for colonel, Benj.

min Harrison for lieutenant colonel, and John Skidmore for major;

John Gratten, John Thomas, and Daniel Smith were appointed coroners for the county;

It was ordered that Gawen Hamilton, being first sworn, should run the division line between Rockingham and Augusta; also the "Length of the County from the said Line to Lord Fairfax's Line, or run any other Line by the Direction of Mr. Lewis the Surveyor to enable him to make out a plan of the County";

Gawen Hamilton was recommended as a proper man to serve as deputy surveyor under Mr. Lewis, "if he is pleased to appoint him to that office";

Gawen Hamilton was appointed a captain of the militia in the county; Joseph Smith, 1st lieutenant; John Rice, 2d lieutenant; and Wm. Smith (3d lieutenant?); Wm. Herring was appointed 2d lieutenant, and Joseph Dictam, ensign, in Capt. Robert Craven's company; Richard Reagen was appointed 2d lieutenant, and Joseph Smith ensign, in Capt. Daniel Smith's company;

It was ordered that Daniel Smith draw from the treasurer of the Commonwealth 12 pounds, and "lay it out for the Support of Bridget Fowler the distressed Wife of John Fowler a Soldier in the continental Army from this County."

Although Silas Hart had been sworn in as sheriff, under the governor's commission, he was not long permitted to enjoy the office; for in the record of the second day's session of the court we find a minute to the effect that Josiah Davidson, John Skidmore, and George Boswell were recommended to the governor as candidates fit for appointment to the position. This procedure is explained in the same minute. It appears that Silas Hart and Daniel Smith, having been senior justices in Augusta, and having thereby held the office of sheriff before the division of the county, had agreed to relinquish their claim to the office when they should fall within the new county of Rockingham. Accordingly, they now agreed, or were required, to allow the office to be handed are reproduced either in form or in substance in the following pages, it will clearly and repeatedly appear that Rockingham contributed in generous measure to the cause of American independence. Her soldiers fought on fields at home and abroad. Her citizens furnished supplies of varied kind and enormous quantity for military use. Her magistrates were liberal in providing for the wives and children of patriot soldiers, and alert in suppressing tories. In these records the student of government will read efficiency and equity; the industrial economist will observe many statistics of kind, measure, and value; the soldier will discern military organization and activity; the sociologist will find a people simple and frugal; and the genealogist will recognize many an ancestor in honorable service.

August 24, 1778, George Rootes, Gent., took the oath of an attorney at law, which was ordered certified by the court. On the same day the court appointed John Hinton to draw £30 and lay it out for Bridget Fowler, wife of John Fowler, a soldier in the U. S. service, and her children.

September 28, 1778, George Boswell and John Thomas were appointed to examine and receive the Jayl house built on Danl. Smith's plantation agreeable to a former order of court; whereupon the said gentlemen reported that they had viewed the said Jayl and found it sufficient, &c., except the iron door and window, which could not be procured.

November 23, 1778, the court ordered £25 to be paid Mary Rupe, wife of Nicolas Rupe, a soldier in the continental army, to relieve the distress of herself and seven children.

At a court held on Monday, March 22, 1779, a "Deed from Robt. Hill to the presbyterian Congregation was proved by the Witnesses & O to be recorded Tho. Brewster to pay fees."

Mary Sybert, widow of Chas. Fred. Sybert, a soldier who died in the service of the Commonwealth, being in indigent circumstances, with one helpless child, was allowed £30.

Elizabeth Shulenberger, widow of Geo. Shulenberger,

Claypole Gum a Soldier from this County who died in the service of the States recommend her to the board of Auditors for such relief as they think proper for her distressed circumstances."

October 24, 1780.

William Herring was sworn in as captain of militia; Joseph Dictam and Andrew Shanklin, as first lieutenants; Robt. Harrison as ensign.

George Boswell, upon commission from the governor [Thomas Jefferson] was sworn into the office of sheriff.

November 27, 1780.

Zeruiah Stratton was sworn in as a captain of militia.

"A sufficient number of the grand jury not appearing [24 had been summoned] O that the be discharged & the following persons being summoned & called & not attending O that they be fined according to Law towit Jas. Beard Jo. Rutherford Zeb Harrison Adam Reader Peter Conrod James Dever Francis Stewart Jacob Lincoln & Nico. Cairn."

November 28, 1780.

"Silas Hart John Davis Henry Ewing & Wm. Herring Gent Commissioners appointed to let the building the County Jayl reported that they had let out the building of the same to Cornelius Cain for Eleven Thousand nine hundred & Seventy three pounds, & retd. a Bond of Said Cornes. Cain wi security for the Due performance of said building."

Abraham Smith, having resigned the office of county lieutenant, on account of "his Disorder & Infirmities," the court recommended Danl. Smith for appointment in his stead.

The court allowed 3 barrels of corn, at £40 a barrel, and 150 pounds of pork, at 30 — —, to Frances Clough, wife of John Clough, a soldier in the service of the States.

The sheriff was ordered to pay Thomas Harrison £100 for holding 3 courts in his house.

To Cornelius Cain, for building the Jayl, for the balance due and the depreciation of the currency since it was undertaken, in specie, or in paper money at the depreciation fixed by the Assembly,	£100
To Samuel Parrot, 2 wolves heads,	£ 1— 5—0
To Robt. Campbell, as a gratuity for building the courthouse,	3— 3—0
To Robt. Campbell, for the additional work on the courthouse,	7—19—0
For finishing the Jayl, &c.,	40— 0—0
	£ 152— 7—0
A depositum,	10—13
	£196— 0—0
To the sheriff for collecting, 6%	11—15—0
	£207—15—0

It was ordered that the sheriff collect 3s. in specie on every tithable in the county, as a levy for the ensuing year; or the equivalent value in paper currency, as fixed by the Assembly.

Income from 1450 tithables, £217—10—0

November 27, 1781.

"Ordered that the late Sheriff [George Boswell] pay to Cornelius Cain the Money levied this last County Levy for building the County Jayl being £11973, the Commissioners who let the building of the same having reported that the it is finished according to the plan."

George Boswell, late sheriff, settled with the court, reporting a balance on hand of £580—7—0, on 1459 tithables, 8 supernumeraries, and 51 delinquents.

"O that Andrew Shanklen keep the Courtho for the ensuing year & provide a Stock Lock for the fore Door & an Iron Bolt for the other Door & provide the Court with Fire & Candles."

John Brown, for 2 bus. rye, at 2s. 6d. a bushel, Nov. 17, 1780.

John Frazor, for 2 bus. rye and 10 bus. corn, Nov. 26, 1780.

Nana Simerman, for 66 lbs. mutton, at 3d. a pound, Febr. 21, 1781.

Pat. Guin, for 3 bus. corn, Dec. 7, 1781.

Daniel Smith, for pasturing 34 troop horses 20 days, for beef, corn, and whiskey, July 21, 1781; for public service with his team, &c., Nov. 30, 1781.

Michael Couger, for making 2 tents, at 6s. 3d., Jan. 18, 1781.

answers, purchased from James Watson. Sarah Penn answers, dower as widow of Gabl. Penn. Robert Holloway answers, holds by purchase under a deed of trust from Smyth Tandy. James Savage answers.

Fleming vs. Cavendish—O. S. 279; N. S. 98—Bill, 4th January, 1806, by Thomas Fleming of Frederick County. Francis Mara of Greenbrier died, testate, in June, 1791, leaving wife Hanna and only child, daughter Margaret (child with which wife was supposed pregnant was not born. She was not pregnant). William H. Cavendish was co-executor. Hanna married orator Thomas. Accounts current of a store in Lewisburgh, 29th July, 1791.

Humphrey's administrator vs. McClenachan's administrator—O. S. 281; N. S. 99—Bill, June, 1798, by Alexr. Humphreys, that on 3d October, 1795, Alexr. McClenachan contracted to sell orator 6,666⅔ acres in Kentucky, due McClenachan for military service in late war, and 4,000 acres as assignee of William Long, also entitled for military service. McClenachan died, intestate, leaving a son John and two daughters, Elizabeth, wife of William Abney, and Letitia, wife of Morris Austin. At September Court, Franklin County, Ky., 1818. David Humphreys is appointed guardian to Elizabeth and Alexander Humphreys, infant orphans of Alexr. Humpreys. James B. Humphreys, son of Dr. Alexr. Humphreys, late of Staunton, releases his claim to Charles Sproule of Frankfort, Ky., 10th July, 1815. Patent by Governor of Kentucky to Alexander McClanahan and Henry Rhodes, 6,666⅔ acres in District set apart for the officers and soldiers of the Continental line on waters of Rock Creek, 22d March, 1797. Letter dated Lexington, Ky., 20th August, 1796, to Dr. Alexr. Humphreys at Staunton. In 1782, James Thompson, now of Kentucky, obtained a right of settlement for 1,400 acres within 2 or 3 miles of Martin's Station in Powell's Valley and shortly after removed to Kentucky. Writer returned to Kentucky 10th July and found "James, his lady and our relations in this quarter all well." James has formed a respectable connexion. Mr. Blair will also make out very well in this country. Having no late information from my parents or from Preston, I know not whether their removal to Kentucky may be expected this fall. Our frontier inhabitants and the Indians carry on friendly intercourse with each other, in consequence of which our new settlements extend rapidly. State never enjoyed a greater degree of prosperity. Season has been highly favorable; crops of every kind most abundant. My love to my sister and your little ones." Signed—J. Brown. Answer by Mary Humphries, widow of late Alexander Humphreys, and James, John and Samuel, his heirs. David C. Humphreys was also a son.

Johnson vs. Johnson—O. S. 281; N. S. 99—Bill by Chapman Johnson, February, 1810. Mr. Paul L. Wright
1204 Cameron Ct. N.E.
Atlanta, GA 30306

Dear Paul:

I'm enclosing what little I have on the Harris/Fuller line. This is my mother in law's line, through her Mother.

Frankly, most of my efforts, in days gone by, have been on the Ritch/Rich side of the family, but I did go through my notes and here is what I have:

In my brief correspondence with Ken Thomas, he never said who he thought might be the father of Gray Harris. Before my correspondence with him, in '77, I had been leaning toward thinking that a Hardy Harris who married a Clara Gray just might be the father of Gray.(merely because of the surnames)

Then when I ran the census', and began to put together a picture of the records, it appears that Simeon is probably the father of 'my' Nancy and that I really don't know who is the father of Gray Harris!!

May I give you a little of my background so you will be able to see why I can't spend too much time on my own genealogy, not near what I would like.

I've worked on the Staff of Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston for over 10 years. So you see, after 8 hours of helping other people, I'm pretty much burned out, so far as genealogy is concerned. Except when I get a letter that seems to really know about my family or my husbands. Most of the time my letters are from people that know nothing of their family, and because of the common surname that we are both working on, they think we are connected. I try to answer those letters, but it sure takes time and here lately I just don't have it to give. We are remodeling our home, and I'm doing a lot of the inside work myself. I'm one of those crazys that love to paint and wall paper.

My Harris/Fuller families are in Georgia and North Carolina and not too sure just where in NC. So far as I know, none of the direct line Boswells came into Texas, altho as you can see my husband's mother, Clifford was born in Mansfield (outside of Ft. Worth,TX, but the family moved back to Muscogee Co. and later Pike Co., GA . We refer to the Tx Boswells as the Milk Boswells, because of the large dairy farm and business in Fort Worth, which we do not think is any connection of our Boswell line!!

Dear Paul:

The 'Dairy' Boswells have been written up in the Gustavus Boswell and Descendants by Lorin A. Boswell. The certified genealogist who worked on this line, also works (i.e. does research) in our Library. She tells me that she understood that Lorin Boswell gave her research papers to the Tx State Archives. I wrote to them but didn't get anything back...they referred me to the book. Of course, what I wanted was a look at the work papers. This researcher, sorry can't remember her name at the moment, tells me that 'my' Boswells are connected and that they all came from Maryland. Well, there are scads of Boswells in MD and many Johns,Georges &Williams!!! Anyway, I've always kept my eye out for any Fuller or Harris that might be in any group with a Boswell. People did so cling to groups and from state to state.

My reasons for thinking that Simeon Fuller belongs to my Nancy is he bought land from Jacob Cleckler in Putnam Co.,GA in 1816, the 1820 Census of Putname Co., GA show Simeon with a wife and 5 children, one of which could of been my Nancy. In 1830 Putnam Co., GA, Gray Harris is just 2 pages from Simeon and Spivey Fuller. (wonder if Spivey is a brother?)ra

In 1840, a 'G' Harris is in Greene Co., GA and 1850 he and Nancy are in Steward Co.,GA with the first child listed as Simeon. In 1860,70 and 80 Gray is in Muscogee Co.,GA. Don't think I have even tried to find him in the 1900 Census....is he still alive? Do you know when he died? Believe it was Muscogee Co. ca 1880. I don't find a will in my records, tho.

I have a copy of Gray and Nancy Fuller's marriage record in Putnam Co.,GA.

If your picture of Don Boswell will xerox well, do send me a copy. Just to see if the facial features are familiar. The Christian names of Don Harris, Henry,Braddock/Bradford Harris do don't come into this family of mine and I've not seen them.

My husband's mother was very good with giving me information, but her information of the Ritch,Harris line were very sketchy. I added the Harris/Fuller connection.

I was really hoping that I could give you more info, but this is it. I've gone through my files....please excuse the disjointed sentences. As I found something, I just wrote it down!!for you to read. Hope that you can add or disprove some of the above. I'm so glad to get in touch with someone of these two lines. Guess I've been real 'chicken' about tackling the Harris line....my God the world is full of 'em!! Fullers too. But all I can say is this....send me a copy of your group sheets and generation chart and I'll keep it handy. If there is anything you want me to check for you in the Library, I'll be happy to. May take a little time to get it back to you, but I'm always happy to exchange info with anyone who will do the same.

Maybe when I have some of your names, I can check my 'Misc' file on Harris/Fuller and come up with something that I just quickly xeroxed because it was the right surname and GA.

Really must stop. Hope you can make some sense of this....I've had to stop and start many times. Let me hear from you.

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

Thank you so much for your answer to my query in Family Puzzlers. I'm fully convinced that anyone who tries to research a Harris line is slightly daft!! This is an allied line to my husband's Boswell line. I'm dead center so far as his Jordan line is concerned so started trying to 'come in the back door' by doing the other lines .....so far no real luck.

Ken Thomas was kind enough to write me as to his article which helped me verify some things. I'm very grateful to you both.

I'm going to jot down some things that I found in my 'Misc. Harris' folder that might and might not be of help to you.

In the Georgia Gen. Quarterly, Vol. 7 #4, winter of 1971- is a Harris line that doesn't connect to yours, but maybe a letter to Russell B. Patch 1439 18th Ave. Columbus, Ga. 31901, might help?

In Volume II of North Carolina Marriages.....

Jesse Harris (RS Capt NC) ____(NO DATE!! the others are the late 1700's)
m. Charity Napp(Knapp?)

Frankly, I've got to check at the Library tomorrow or if you tell me you are interested in this marriage--and see just exactly where I got this marriage record.

Your information on the will and guardianship of John H. Snellings, is certainly my husband's line, for the Snellings married Ritch's and they are buried on Fort Benning Reservation near Upatoi, Muscogee Co., Ga.

Let me hear from you if I can be of any help. My thanks again for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Hardy S. Taylor

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I read with interest your query in Family Puzzlers #528 regarding Gray Harris. I have, among a variety of miscellaneous Harris notes, some data on Gray. I have the impression from your query that you have a goodly bit of information from Gray on down, and I can't respond to your question about his and Nancy Fuller's parents. But I will copy on the enclosed pages the material that I have.

1848
1815

I am trying to place an Emily Harris, born 1832-34, married 26 August 1848 William Farmer, and died by 1870 when he remarried. These are my husband's greatgrandparents. William Farmer's brother married Charity Harris, b. Mar. 1828, m. 1855. Emily Harris and William Farmer named my husband's grandmother Charity Louisa so I assume Emily and Charity Harris may have been sisters. In the 1880s Charity had a single sister, in her 60s living with her, named Martha Harris. These families were in Chattahoochee co. in the part cut from Muscogee. They were near the county line of Marion County and these lines did shift some. Marion records before 1845 were burned and Chatt. was not created until the early 1850s. The gap has hindered my search for the Harris family from which they came. Do you have any data that might help place them. Gray Harris is among the very few Harris men that I have found any record of so far that was of an age to have been their father--but I have no indication that he was. The Harris name was not that numerous in the Marion and Chatt. records, but earlier in other parts of the state they were so numerous that tracing a female Harris is very difficult.

send copy of the Ken Thomas article, pl.

Most of the information that I am enclosing on Gray Harris is from an article from Ken Thomas. He is a personable young man in our Ga. Dept. of Natural Resources, lectures on genealogy and writes a weekly column for the Sunday edition of our paper, Atlanta Journal and Constitution. He may have additional Harris data since this article was written. If you should want to get in touch with him, he can be reached at this address: c/o Georgia Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 38066, Atlanta, Ga. 30334.

From your research, if you shoud have any suggestions on Emily and Charity Harris (Farmer), I would appreciate very much hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth H. Taylor

BOSWELL RESEARCH

The ancestry of our Edward BOSWELL has not been determined. Due to the burning of the court house in Prince William County, Virginia, there are very few records available, which makes it difficult to trace Edward BOSWELL. Much more research needs to be done to establish his lineage.

The following is a brief synopsis of some of the records we have found. They remain at best disconnected clues, so we have numbered them as such:

1. According to immigration records, there are a number of BOSWELL's who came to America as early as 1635 - John, Edward, Thomas, Benjamin, Charles, etc.

2. It has been suggested that the Thomas BOSWELL who received a land grant in Virginia in 1652, and Edward in 1655, were brothers and they migrated inland with Thomas' sons settling in Spotsylvania County, Virginia and Edward's line in the adjoining county of Prince William.

3. The line of John and Ann (RANSOM) BOSWELL (see page 259) of Spotsylvania County, Virginia is closely related geographically to our line. They were perhaps distant cousins. John and Ann had four sons: Ransom, George, John and James; and two daughters: Dorothy and Frances. All of Ransom's sons (Ransom, Jr., Thomas, William, James and Joseph) had moved to Caswell County, North Carolina by 1803. This was just above Orange County where our Edward BOSWELL moved in 1798. Many of the children's names are the same in these two families which makes it difficult to separate the two families in Caswell and Orange (now Alamance) Counties, North Carolina. The name Craven is found in both families.

By 1820 we find Ransom, Jr.'s sons, William and James in South Carolina. In 1830 William went to Lawrence County, Tennessee. Ransom, Jr.'s younger son, Joseph, went to Henderson County, Tennessee. Three of Edward's sons: Thomas, Edward, and Matthew; daughter Charlotte; and grandson Brown BOSWELL are all in Henderson County, Tennessee before 1830, coming by way of Kentucky.

4. There were many BOSWELL's in Maryland and Virginia during Edward's time. An Edward BOSWELL served in the Maryland Militia under Capt. Alexander McPHERSON, 12th Regiment, 1776. Other BOSWELL's in the 12th Regiment were: Elijah, Gasts.(Gustavus?), Ignatius, James, Jesse, John, Joseph, Josias, Nichlos, and Richard.

5. BOSWELLs listed in the 1778 Census of Port Tobacco, East Hundred of Charles County, Maryland are: Jesse, Edward, Joseph, William, Josias, Elijah, Walter, Gustavus, John, Matthew, and Richard.

6. Our Edward BOSWELL was born about 1750 and Gustavus BOSWELL was born about 1757. No parentage has been proven for either. Could they be brothers? Edward lived in Prince William County, Virginia from 1774 (perhaps earlier) until 1798 when he moved to Orange County, North Carolina. Gustavus married in Charles County, Maryland in 1784 and his first child was born in Rowan County, North Carolina about 1785, but Gustavus is listed on the Prince William County, Virginia tax roll in 1789, 1791 and 1792. This puts Edward and Gustavus in Prince William County at the same time. Gustavus went back to Rowan County, North Carolina in 1793. A brief outline of Gustavus BOSWELL's descendants is on page 257.

7. It is possible that our Edward came from the family of William and Mary (McATEE) BOSWELL of Charles County, Maryland. They lived just across the Potomac River from Prince William County, Virginia and the name Edward is used in the family repeatedly. Edward, the son of John, Sr. and Sarah BOSWELL and grandson of William and Mary BOSWELL could possibly be the father of our Edward. This lineage is shown on page 243. However, due to a lack of records we have been unable to prove this.

In 1783 an assessment for an Edward BOSWELL in Charles County, Maryland included 1 female slave, age 16-36, and 12 white inhabitants. The Charles County, Maryland Census of 1790 shows an Edward BOSWELL with a wife, 1 son over 16 and 3 sons under 16, and 3 daughters. There is an Edward BOSWELL, Sr. on the Prince William County, Virginia tax roll from 1791 to 1796. Edward, the subject of this book, is listed on this tax roll from 1782 through 1798.

It is interesting that William's great grandson, Henry and great granddaughter, Sarah (who married Leonard BEAN in Maryland), were among the first settlers of Ohio County, Kentucky around 1810. Edward's oldest son, Craven, left North Carolina and went to Henderson County, Kentucky about 1808. At that time, Ohio and Henderson Counties were adjoining.

8. Colonel John BOSWELL of Gloucester and Louisa Counties, Virginia, died in 1780. His wife was Ann JOHNSON and they had 14 children, all died before they reached the age of 10. Colonel BOSWELL owned BOSWELL's Tavern and extensive acreage. His brother William had died and he convinced his brother, Major Thomas BOSWELL of Gloucester County, to move to Louisa County and gave him land there. Thomas' children inherited property from Col. John BOSWELL when he died. Thomas died in 1797. There seems to be no connection between these BOSWELLs and the Edward of our lineage.
